Two important items, which all of our Chariton county exchanges were "scooped" on by the COURIER last week, were in regard to the offer of Wm. C. Whitney to furnish the money with which to build the Missouri Central Electric railway and the suicide of Pat Riley, a well-to-do farmer of near Indian Grove.

Harrison & Phillips have been granted license to keep a dram-shop at Linneus. One of Senator "Billy" Mason's stories is about two of his brothers, Ed and Jim, who dealt in wool at their home in Iowa. Jim went to a revival meeting (unthinkingly, the senator says,) and "got religion." In his first burst of enthusiasm he told his brother of how much better he felt since his conversion and urged Ed to come into the fold. The latter pondered gravely for a time and then said: "Ain't any doubt but what religion's a good thing and I'm glad you've got it, Jim, but I guess you better let me alone just now," he continued, reflectively. "You see, Jim, one of us has got to weigh the wool."

Fantastic stories have been written of magic mirrors in which the future was revealed. If such a thing were possible many a bright bride would shrink from the revelation of herself, stripped of all her loveliness. If there is one thing which would make a woman shrink from marriage it is to see the rapid physical deterioration which comes to so many wives. The cause is generally due to womanly diseases. Lost health and lost comeliness are restored by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' have done for me," writes Mrs. Emma L. Bankes, of 1925 North 7th Street, Harrisburg, Pa. "They have done me a world of good. I had female weakness for six years; sometimes would feel so badly I did not know what to do, but I found relief at last, thanks to Dr. Pierce for his kind advice. I have this medicine still in my house and will always keep it."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Or for cloth-bound volume send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Two burglars visited Utica Monday night. They first broke into a blacksmith shop and secured some tools with which they entered the store of Dietrich Bros., where they tried to open the safe, but were driven away by Arthur Deitrich, who fired five shots at the robbers and they returned the fire with four shots, but no one was hurt. The burglars made their escape, but went empty handed.

Pratt for probate judge to 272 for Hal P. Lander for prosecuting attorney.

Salisbury's electric plant has expanded, and in addition to the lights being run until about 12:30 a. m., they are also turned on from 4 o'clock until daylight. Married men of that city, who are up after 12:30, will now have a good excuse to stay out until 4 o'clock.

At the recent election in Macon county the county official honors were divided between the Democrats and Republicans, notwithstanding the Democrats have a nominal majority of about 500. The Republicans elected the representative, presiding judge, judge of the southern district, probate judge and prosecuting attorney, while the Democrats captured the offices of circuit clerk, treasurer, recorder, county clerk, collector, sheriff, judge of the northern district and coroner.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from Rheumatism as few could endure and live. The Macon Times-Democrat says: When "Uncle" Nathan Crawford of near Holt cut down a hickory tree recently he found a large piece of tobacco imbedded in it. A hole a few inches deep had been bored into the tree, the tobacco tamped in and a wooden peg driven in to hold it in place. This is said to have been one of the means by which our grandfathers preserved their tobacco. As the wood had grown several inches deep over the hole, "Uncle" Nathan supposes the "weed" had been there many years. It was in a good state of preservation.

Last Saturday, says the Salisbury Democrat, while out driving in the eastern part of the city, Henry Fuller's horse became unmanageable and ran off at full speed through Doc McAdams' lane and north of the railroad. In attempting to turn the horse toward Mr. Henderson's, Mr. Fuller was thrown out of the buggy, striking the ground with such force as to render him unconscious. His brother, Albert, saw the accident and hastened to his assistance and took him home. Drs. Welch and Baker were summoned to attend him. His left ear was lacerated and the lower lobe almost cut off. The shock produced paralysis, from which he has not yet recovered, leaving him in a critical condition.—LATER.—Mr. Fuller died Friday. He is unmarried.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
